NOTICES:

Parking areas will not open before 9 a.m. Details will be provided in your information package with the confirmation of this registration.

It is recommended that participants only bring animals that they deem to be safe in groups of horses, safe around vehicles & spectators, is able to stand quietly, and is accustomed to loud noises, including but not limited to motors and engines, sound systems, announcers, and possibly sirens (parade route is near the Fire Department). Participants will be riding on roads, and there may be occasions when it is necessary to trot, so if necessary animals should be shod accordingly. Officials reserve the right to excuse any entry at any time, with no refund, for any behavior deemed inappropriate or dangerous.

NEW for 2018! This year's parade will feature an official, formal viewing stand with sound system (located at the combined headquarters for the Maryland Horse Council & The Equiery on Frederick Road). Each entry will be asked to pause while the announcer reads a brief description about the entry. This is a great opportunity to promote your organization! Please provide a brief (max 100 word) description of your entry; include any relevant information such as the purpose of the group, names of participants, breeds and/or names of animals, any costume or theme of entry. Descriptions may be condensed for readability at the discretion of the committee or announcer. Use back of form if necessary!
